

Spring Grove Fringe 2012

Jason and the Argonauts

a new pantomime

Friday 10th & Saturday 11th February

It is a time of terrible tyrants, mighty monsters and garrulous gods.

Thessally, a town in ancient Greece, is ruled by the Evil King Pelias. He raises taxes, he cuts spending, he cuts off heads!

Enter Jason, a callow youth, the rightful heir to the crown. He has grown up hiding in a cave, but now it is time to reclaim his throne.

But before Jason can become king, he must brave many perils in faraway lands. Horrible Hoodies torment a poor old pensioner. Serenading Sirens lure sailors to their doom. And the faraway land of Kolkis holds fearsome monsters.

Luckily the most famous heroes of ancient Greece are at hand to help Jason. Hercules, Orpheus, Castor, Pollux and Archimedes form the band of Argonauts. And their well benched ship, the Argo, has the advantage of a magical talking figurehead. Even the gods have taken an interest in Jason's quest. If they can't help Jason, who can?

Will Jason find the lost golden fleece? Can he save the beautiful princess Medea from her wicked stepfather? Might he prove to be the hero Thessally needs?
